Incident Number: 20-251809

September 29, 2020; 22:31:51

Operator: 911 what's the address of the emergency?

Caller: Yes ma'am, we've got two people that are looting through our dumpster and trying to break, break into one of the vehicles behind our building.

Operator: Okay, where are you, what's your address?

Caller: I'm sorry, [REDACTED] in the alley.

Operator: Okay, [REDACTED] and they're in the alley?

Caller: Uh-huh, my apartment faces the alley.

Operator: Okay, so what, what are they doing that's telling you they're trying to get in the building?

Caller: No, they're looting through the dumpsters and throwing stuff out into the alley and they're trying to break into one of the vehicles. Okay, now they're, ah wait a minute they seem, now they're standing in front of my best friend's car. Now they're going back to the dumpsters.

Operator: Okay, so are they trying to break into one particular vehicle or are they like checking the handles of all the vehicles?

Caller: Well they were, right now, oh pardon me, um now they're walking down towards 29th.

Operator: Okay so did they actively get into a vehicle?

Caller: I mean no...

Operator: Break into a vehicle?

Caller: No, because fortunately he has an alarm. I hate to bother you guys because I know huh you've been kind of active over here. Do you have a nonemergency number?

Operator: We do, would you like to write that down?

Caller: Yes, ma'am, give me one second because I hate to bother 911 if I don't have to.

Operator: Oh, we appreciate that.

Caller: Okay, yes ma'am.

Operator: Okay, it's [REDACTED]

Caller: Uh-huh.

Operator: [REDACTED]

Caller: [REDACTED]

Operator: [REDACTED]

Caller: [REDACTED] and by the way I want to tell you guys thank you for how quickly and how many of you, you all responded for the, or when you're saying about [REDACTED] over here. So, it's a half a block from where our apartment is; and thank you guys for everything that you're doing for us, even though most people don't appreciate it.

Operator: Oh well, we appreciate that. Thank you so much for saying that.

Caller: Absolutely and I'm glad, I'm glad only the bad guys got hurt, the bad guy got hurt this time.

Operator: I would (inaudible) agree with you there.

Caller: I know it's not (inaudible—both talking).

Operator: Well yeah, it's a certain situation.

Caller: Yeah.

Operator: But we do appreciate the kind words, thank you so much.

Caller: No, we're, we're grateful that you guys are still out there protecting us with all the bad attitudes that ah, you all seem to be getting so.

Operator: Thank you.

Caller: But coming to you.

Operator: Yeah, I'm gonna pass that on.

Caller: And that was, and that was [REDACTED], I mean [REDACTED]?

Operator: [REDACTED], yup, yup that's correct.

Caller: Okay, thank you ma'am and you have a safe evening.

Operator: Thank you, you too, bye now.

Caller: Thank you, bye-bye.
